

Top Kosher Wines

Note: The following list is a selection of outstanding and very good red, white, rosé and sparkling wines from recently rated releases. More kosher options can be found in our Wine Ratings Search.

COVENANT

Cabernet Sauvignon Napa Valley 2018

Score: 91 | $100

WS review: This is very solid, with cassis, blackberry and plum paste flavors forming the core, while singed alder and tobacco accents hang in the background. Has cut and drive on the finish, with a late twang of iron giving it some cut. Kosher. From California. Drink now through 2028. 1,000 cases made.—J.M.

COVENANT

Chardonnay Sonoma Mountain Lavan 2018

Score: 91 | $38

WS review: Rich and juicy style, with concentrated Fuji apple and pear tart flavors that are backed by crunchy acidity. Light cream and buttery accents on the toasty finish. Kosher. From California. Drink now through 2024. 250 cases made.—K.M.

COVENANT ISRAEL

Cabernet Sauvignon Israel 2018

Score: 91 | $90

WS review: This polished red is packed with glossy cherry and currant flavors that are infused with anise, mountain herb, mineral and spice notes that meld together through the finish. Kosher. From Israel. Drink now through 2028. 434 cases made, 434 cases imported.—G.S.
