2017 MENSCH ROUSSANNE

ROUSSANNE

ABOUT THE WINE:

There is not much Roussanne, one of the Rhone Valley's premier white grapes, grown in California. This wine is sourced from grower Larry Mettler's vineyard in Lodi. Whole cluster pressed then fermented in neutral oak with native yeast. It was bottled after relatively short barrel aging (6 months), which we believe maintains purity of fruit.

TASTING NOTES:

The wine serves up a wonderful mineral core with bright acidity for good structure. Hints of stone fruit, citrus and jasmine give it a freshness that lingers long on the palate.
